Demand Picked Up

►► From Page 1

Normal monsoons in the current season sowed the seeds of demand resurgence in the industry that reported as much as 10% growth in sales of hair oil, shampoo and toothpastes in October, according to sources citing data from market-research company Nielsen. "We were already seeing every evidence of demand pick-up pre-demoneti-sation and October sales were well into double digits for categories as both for categories as our own business an off-very sharply in November and December. For a revival, we will have to do a bit more, perhaps in April," said Sunil Duggal, executive officer at D... After increasing in the trend changed later, sales falling by up to 7%
